You will need to sign a certification form in connection with the distribution of food from the state funded program and/or Federal assistance through TEFAP (The Emergency Food Assistance Program).

We will need some information, including where you live and the number of people in your household.

Please have the following items and information available:

- Your current, government-issued photo ID.
- Current, government-issued ID for all other members of household.
- Current address from utility bill or other official document for all members of the household.
