

URBAN AGRICULTURE GRANT APPLY TODAY!

For the third year, Mid-Ohio Foodbank is pleased to announce the availability of grant funds for urban agriculture projects that will help build sustainable community gardens, urban farms, and small scale agriculture projects within the City of Columbus, Ohio. This includes projects involving the use of high-tunnels, that will provide residents in low-income neighborhoods with direct access to fresh fruits and vegetables.

By making grants from award funds to assist local projects, Mid-Ohio Foodbank intends to further its charitable purpose of ending hunger one nourishing meal at a time.

Funding to Mid-Ohio Foodbank to make these grants in support of projects has been provided by The U.S. Department of Agriculture's Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) pursuant to award number 68-5E34-798 and CFDA number 10.902.
